Scholarships awarded to 1982 ACHS graduates

Stella Otway Osborne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Osborne of Route 2, Appomattox, is the Valedictorian of the Class of 1982 and recipient of the Greater Lynchburg Area Honor Scholarship, awarded by Lynchburg College for superior scholastic ability. The scholarship covers the full annual cost of tutition and academic fees, which total $4,050.00 annually and $16,200.00 for four years. Renewal of the scholarship is subject to maintaining an academic average of 3.0 or above on a 4.0 scale. Stella will major in English/Journalism at Lynchburg College.

Stella is also the recipient of the Mozella J. Price Scholarship of $150.00 for her outstanding academic record, character, and purposeful goals. The recipient must exhibit a sincere desire for higher education and have a desire to help others.

Michael Scott Richardson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd E. Richardson of Pamplin, has been awarded a Freshman Honor Scholarship of $750.00 by Lynchburg College. This award is based on his outstanding academic record and the official recommendation of the high school. The scholarship is renewable each year that he is a full-time undergraduate student at Lynchburg College, subject to continued commendable academic performance. In his award letter to Michael, Dr. Carey Brewer, President of Lynchburg College, said "We have great hopes for your continued academic achievement here, and we have every confidence that you will be a highly valued addition to our College."
